They say the journey is its own reward – start yours with a visit to Omaha’s craft breweries. Request your own Explorer’s Journal and enjoy a free craft beer at each of the eight featured breweries. Sample some of the best beers you’ll ever taste, created by craftsmen who have made beer their life and Omaha their home.

The tour is yours, you pick the friends, the dates and even the order of your brewery stops. At the end, stop by the Omaha Visitors Center and pick up a souvenir pint glass to commemorate your journey. Cheers!

Request your free Explorer’s Journal which includes coupons for a free beer at each of the eight participating breweries (while supplies last). The Journal is available to those living outside the Omaha metro area.

About The Cover

This year's cover celebrates iconic Omaha with photos of the NCAA College World Series, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo & Aquarium and the Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge. Each offers a bucket-list experience you can't get anywhere else.

Omaha's Henry Doorly, touted as the 'Best Zoo in the World' by TripAdvisor, is home to the world's largest indoor desert, the world's largest nocturnal exhibit filled with animals that only come out at night, and the country's largest indoor rainforest. The Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge is the longest bridge to connect two states, walk just past the middle of 'Bob' and you can stand in two states at the same time. And 2015 marks the 65th anniversary of the NCAA College World Series in Omaha, a summer tradition filled with food, music, tailgating, a fanfest, and the best in college baseball.

#OmahaWeekend

A blogger from VisitFlyOverCountry.com shared this photo about his visit to the world's largest indoor desert in Omaha. See what others are saying about their Omaha visit and share your experiences at #OmahaWeekend.

Traveling To & Around Omaha

Flying To Omaha

Omaha's Eppley Airfield serves more than 4 million passengers a year and is conveniently located close to downtown Omaha. If you're renting a car or hopping in a cab it will take you less than 10 minutes to get downtown. Eppley offers non-stop service to top destinations throughout the United States, and has more than 200 arrivals and departures daily.

Getting Around Omaha

Rental cars, taxis, limousine and shuttle bus services are available at the airport. The majority of Omaha hotels offer complimentary direct transportation to and from the airport, as well as shuttle service within a specific mile radius.

Trip Tip

E-Hail a cab by just downloading the NexTaxi app. The app allows you to request a cab, track it until it arrives, and even pay the tab, all with your smartphone.

Driving To Omaha

Omaha is conveniently located in the center of the county and in the heart of the Midwest at the junction of I-29 and I-80. Once you arrive you'll find the city is easy to navigate. The city streets are set up on a grid system, Dodge Street divides the city north and south, and numbered streets start at the Missouri River and increase as you drive west.

Omaha Visitors Center

Your Visit Starts Here

Stop into the Omaha Visitors Center and talk one-on-one with friendly Omaha experts who will help customize your Omaha experience. Whether you're looking for something different for the family to do, or trying to figure out where to eat, the Omaha Visitors Center is the place to start. Vibrant video displays take you on a virtual tour of the city, easy to follow maps will guide you on your journey, and a fun photo booth lets you capture a special souvenir to send to your friends and family. Complimentary coffee and Wi-Fi is available.

History

The three-story Italianate Poppleton Block was constructed in 1880 for a prominent Omaha attorney, Andrew Jackson Poppleton, who was the second Mayor of the City of Omaha. His most famous case was the defense of Chief Standing Bear. The case set the legal precedent of treating Native Americans "as persons under the law." The Poppleton Block is significant as a fine example of the High Victorian Italianate style of architecture popular in the Midwest during the latter part of the 19th century. The Poppleton Block was known as the "most elegant and commodious building in the City of Omaha." The building today is home to the Omaha Visitors Center.

2015 Exhibits

BAM! It's a Picture Book: The Art Behind Graphic Novels

Through March 29, 2015
Joslyn Art Museum

Since the early 1900s, graphic novels have intrigued generations with a series of illustrations telling a story in a similar length of time as a novel. Developed through from ancient cave paintings and hieroglyphs, storytelling through pictures became a phenomena with DC Comics' Superman and Batman and Marvel Comics' Fantastic Four, Spider-Man, and X-Men. Today, graphic novels are more respected and the on impact society is a topic of scholarly discussion. The Joslyn Art Museum will take a look into the creative process and development of graphic novels. Explore mixed media, computer-generated illustrations, preliminary sketches, storyboards and cover art created by five of the leading contemporary graphic novelists.

Once Upon A Farm

Through April 12, 2015
Omaha Children's Museum

Your little ones are invited to step inside the Farmville world and experience firsthand the joys of working the land. They'll learn the process of planting the seeds and harvesting the vegetables that end up on your dinner table. First, they'll climb into the driver's seat of a combine, wheel around the pedal track maze and stop to fill up at the ethanol station. Next it's time to plant the crop and learn about water and irrigation. They can't forget to check on their livestock and head over to the Cow Café to create their own beef dishes. Other activities include sorting grain into large bins, crawling through a 2 story worm wall and hoping aboard the Ag Express for an up-close look at a real tractor. Your little farmer will grow a whole new appreciation for food.

Nature Connects 2: Art with LEGO Bricks

January 17 – April 26
Lauritzen Gardens

The creative and dynamic world of LEGO® returns to Omaha with 27 all new life-sized and larger-than-life sculptures. Created with 300,000 LEGO® bricks of varying sizes, these sculptures bring nature to life in unique and colorful ways. Compare your wing span to a beautiful monarch butterfly, stand tall with a majestic bald eagle, go nose-to-nose with a giant praying mantis and waddle along with a friendly family of ducks. Stop by the Play and Let it Stay Station where the whole family can tinker, create and build their own LEGO® masterpieces. With photo ops around every corner, you're sure to capture perfect Instagram-worthy moments.

Katharine Hepburn:
Dressed for Stage and Screen

February 7 – April 26, 2015
The Durham Museum

With style, grace and an unmistakable voice, Katharine “Kate” Hepburn (1907 – 2003) ruled the stage and silver screen for six decades. The American icon dazzled audiences on and off screen with an extraordinary talent and fiercely independent spirit. Hepburn’s unique sense style visits The Durham Museum with more than 35 costumes worn in 21 films and 6 stage productions, as well as other personal items spanning her career. See firsthand how “Kate” epitomized the modern woman of the 20th century.

American Moderns, 1910–1960: From O’Keeffe to Rockwell

February 8 – May 17, 2015
Joslyn Art Museum

Come face-to-face with works of art created by the artists responsible for the dramatic transformation of American art between 1910 and 1960. These artists rejected the norm and created new trends as a way to portray contemporary life. As America experienced two world wars and the Great Depression – the art world also saw a remarkable shift. View 55 masterworks from Milton Avery, Stuart Davis, Arthur G. Dove, Marsden Hartley, Georgia O’Keeffe, Yasuo Kuniyoshi, Marsden Hartley, and Max Weber.

Fairytale Land

May 23 – August 9, 2015
Omaha Children’s Museum

Step into an enchanting world filled with magic, adventure and a very happily ever after. Your little prince and princess will work their imagination as they interact with the museum’s princesses and travel to a world far, far away. Storybooks come to life as children act out their favorite fairy tales, participate in sing-alongs and marvel at dancing knights. It’s fun for the whole family from beginning to “The End”.

Lost Egypt: Ancient Secrets, Modern Science

May 23 – September 6, 2015
The Durham Museum

For thousands of years, the world has been fascinated by the Egyptian culture as scientists unearth ancient relics. Come face-to-face with real mummies, study authentic artifacts and decipher hieroglyphics. Use the same tools and methods as modern day archeologist to unveil mysteries hidden within the exhibit.

Attractions

Looking for fun while visiting Omaha – it's all mapped out for you. Just look for the giant blue push pins marking 15 top Omaha attractions. As you'll read here, all locations offer something that is uniquely Omaha and appeal to a wide range of interests. Specially designed maps to help point you in the right direction are available at the Omaha Visitors Center, area attractions, and Omaha hotels.

Family Adventure

One step inside and you realize Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo and Aquarium is a whole different kind of animal. TripAdvisor calls it the 'Best Zoo in the World' and for good reason. Omaha's zoo is home to the world's largest indoor desert and the largest indoor rainforest in the country. You'll be transported to exotic locations where you'll see thousands of animals from across the globe in their natural habitat. It's the ultimate interactive zoo experience spread over 130 acres, and with 7 acres of indoor exhibits, it's a year-round must-do.

Omaha Children's Museum is imagination central, filled with creative hands-on experiences designed just for kids. There's the Charlie Campbell Science and Technology Center with an inventor's workshop, science shows, and the enormous Super Gravitron ball machine. Sandy's Splish Splash Garden, a kid-sized neighborhood, and the Creative Arts Center that lets kids explore their inner artist.

Get Your Art On

Ever-changing, always impressive art exhibitions are the foundations of the Bemis Center for Contemporary Art. The Bemis features art from both new and seasoned artists in an artist-in-residence atmosphere. Right across the street KANEKO hosts innovative artists and performances that explore the creative process in a very unique way. At the Hot Shops Art Center, witness cutting edge art in a unique warehouse atmosphere where more than 80 artists entertain as they create, mold, and burn ordinary objects into works of art.

On Screen

An intimate art house cinema experience, Film Streams at Ruth Sokolof Theater is committed to screening films based on their creative, artistic, and social merits. Watch first-run independent and foreign films, documentaries making their theatrical premier, or listen to directors give their perspectives on the classics.

Follow the Cobblestone Road

Cobblestone streets lined with unique boutiques, art galleries, antique emporiums, and tasty sweet shops pack the historic Old Market Entertainment District. Belly up to the bar at one of the eclectic pubs, enjoy street artists, musicians, and carriage rides. With more than 30 distinctive Omaha restaurants, you'll find plenty of flavor in the Old Market.

Say Hello to Rembrandt

Thirty-eight different marbles from seven countries combine to make this pink marble museum a masterpiece - and that's just the outside of the Joslyn Art Museum. Inside, it's filled with more than 11,000 works of art from antiquity to the present featuring work from artists such as Rembrandt, Monet and Renoir not to mention the highly-regarded collection of Greek pottery. Free Admission.

Time Travel

Climb onboard a steam train, take a look at one of the world's rarest coin collections, and enjoy an old-fashioned phosphate at an authentic 1930s soda fountain. The Durham Museum, Omaha's original art deco train station, has been transformed into a vibrant museum where you can experience the region's rich history in a fun hands-on way.

Tour the expansive campus of Boys Town. The national landmark, museum, historic chapels, gardens, and Father Flanagan's home, are all preserved in time inside this world-renowned village. A fun feature is the QR code tour - scan the special codes located throughout the Boys Town campus and explore using your smart phone.

Catch the heritage of jazz in a part of the city where Duke Ellington and Count Basie once played. Love's Jazz and Arts Center is committed to the preservation and advancement of African American arts; the Center features guided tours, gallery talks, and interactive storytelling.

At the Mormon Trail Center, take a trip back to the 1800s by experiencing firsthand the struggles and triumphs of the great Mormon Migration. Pull a handcart like pioneers did all those years ago and see what it was like to live in a make-shift cabin and travel by covered wagon.

The first Latino art and history museum in the Midwest, El Museo Latino is a cozy, culturally-intense center that is as authentic as the Latino restaurants and shops surrounding it. Historic South 24th Street is filled with Mexican tradition from murals on the buildings, folk art and pottery, to authentic cuisine and some of the most unique pastries you'll ever taste.

Romancing the River

Enjoy a romantic gondola ride and watch the spectacular fountain at Heartland of America Park with its 400-foot high water and light show, considered one of the tallest shooting fountains in the world, or take a stroll through the park's 31-acres, located near the Old Market Entertainment District and the Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge. Walking on 'Bob' is like walking on art suspended over the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind 3,000 foot-long suspension bridge provides an almost air-borne experience. Stand in the middle, and you'll be standing in both Nebraska and Iowa at the same time. Bob connects nearly 150 miles of walking and biking trails. On select Fridays during the summer enjoy Bridge Beats, live music performances on the bridge plaza. Nearby, Lauritzen Gardens is an urban oasis with more than 100 acres of botanical beauty including a Victorian Garden, a rose garden, and a four-acre arboretum. You can even watch as model trains travel twiggy trestles in the model railroad garden or check out the real thing - Lauritzen is also home to two of the most powerful locomotives ever built. New this year, explore the indoor conservatory filled with a fantastic collection of unusual and rare plant life.

Stage Right

From the largest community theater in the country to national touring groups and intimate productions, the theatre scene in Omaha is diversely entertaining. A cultural gem, the Omaha Community Playhouse offers two distinct theatre experiences. The Hawks Mainstage Theatre offers mainstream entertainment for everyone, while the Howard Drew Theatre offers a more contemporary, cutting-edge theatre experience. Omaha's historic and ornate Orpheum Theater is home to Omaha Performing Arts' Broadway Across America series and Opera Omaha, which produces a season of original productions that combine great music, phenomenal singers and rich stories. The Blue Barn Theatre, known for its daring, innovative productions and powerful acting ensemble, features four award-winning contemporary plays each season. The Blue Barn plans to open a brand new 99-seat theater in the spring of 2015 with productions in the new facility beginning in the fall. Housed in a beautifully restored 1927 vaudeville palace, the Rose Theater is one of the top children's theaters in the country. The troupe of professional actors creates performances geared toward children from 4 to 18 years of age.

Trip Tip

Enjoy a one-stop cultural and culinary experience at Zinc. Located inside the Holland Performing Arts Center, it's a full service restaurant that is open two and a half hours before most evening performances. Also enjoy Ovations cocktail lounge on the first floor, a perfect spot for wine, drinks and appetizers before and after the show.

What's to See & Do

Sports & Recreation

Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge

For walkers, and bikers 'Bob' provides picturesque views of the Missouri River Valley and connects nearly 150 miles of nature trails.

Bird-watching

Located along the wooded Missouri River valley and along a main migratory path, it only makes sense that the Omaha area is a birding hotspot. Spring and fall are peak seasons but because the area offers diverse bird habitat – lakes, prairies, woodlands, and riverbanks – you will find a wide variety of bird species most any time of year.

Tanking/Tubing

Forget the boat - try tubing and tanking down the scenic Elkhorn River. Which should you choose? It depends on how wet you want to get. With tanking, you float down the river in an 8-foot diameter stock tank fitted with custom made picnic tables. With tubing, you are a little more intimate with the water, sitting in commercial-grade inner tubes with your feet and other body parts dangling in the river. Both offer a fun way to float and enjoy the outdoors.

Golf

With 17 public and semi-public courses, Omaha offers something for golfers of all levels. Rolling hills and tree lined fairways, water hazards and sand traps, each course has its own character filled with competitive challenges. From executive style to championship courses, enjoy playing Omaha's unique golf landscape.

Horseman's Park

Watch and wager on horse racing seven days a week at one of the finest simulcast facilities in the country. Horsemen's seats 3,000 and broadcasts races from coast to coast on more than 700 televisions. In July, Horseman's hosts four days of live racing at the track.

Omaha Beef

This professional indoor football team kicks off its season in March and continues the hard-hitting action through June. An added bonus at the games is entertainment provided by the Rumproasters, an all male dance team made up of men of all different sizes.

Omaha Lancers

Watch some of the best USHL hockey around. The Lancers have won a league-record 7 Clark Cup Championships, and the Ralston Arena provides an up-close-to-the-action atmosphere that makes the games even more exciting.

Omaha Lakes

In addition to having a top nationally ranked park system, Omaha features five lakes - Cunningham, Zorinsky, Standing Bear, Lawrence Youngman, and Bennington - which offer fishing, boating, and recreational activities all year long. Check out the paddleboard adventures; guided paddleboard tours that offer a different way to explore area lakes.

Dog Parks

Give your pet a treat while on vacation with great getaway spots designed just for them. Hefflinger Dog Park features 5 acres of 'all dog area' with a separate 2-acre space for small dogs. Hanscom Bark Park is a 2-acre off-leash park with a rolling landscape that is divided into three separate dog run areas.

What's to See & Do

Day Trips

Wildlife Safari Park

At Exit 426 you'll find the Lee G. Simmons Conservation Park & Wildlife Safari, a four mile drive-through wildlife experience. Stretch your legs and walk to wolf and bear canyon, and hike the nature trails surrounding the park's lake. Climb Crane Meadows Viewing Tower, 28 feet above the ground, to get a bird's eye view of nature. Cool fact – the tower is actually a piece of baseball history, it was saved when historic Rosenblatt Stadium was torn down.

Explore Wine Country

Just a short drive from Omaha, find some of the Midwest's finest wineries, known for their distinctive and award-winning flavors. Enjoy wine tours, tastings and entertainment, as well as beautiful views of the countryside - just follow the Southeast Nebraska Wine Trail and make a day of it, or several. The eight vineyards along the Wine Trail offer everything from spectacular views of the Platte River Valley to tasting rooms inside turn-of-the-century brick caves.

Saunders County

A short drive west of Omaha on Hwy 92 will take you to picturesque Saunders County. Rural in nature peppered with Main Street appeal, history and surprises that seem to pop out of nowhere - like the home office of David Letterman, it's located in the small town of Wahoo, which is also home to the only submarine memorial in the country. Or follow an impulse, turn off the highway and discover Our Corner Cottage, an amazingly eclectic gift shop sprouting among the corn. In Ashland, find an authentic small town main street lined with gift shops, galleries, unique shops and an old fashioned ice cream parlor. Ashland is located on historic U.S. Route 6, considered the longest highway in the U.S. Hidden away in the beautiful vistas of Saunders County is Iron Horse Golf Club, an award winning course that Golf Digest considers one of the best.

Strategic Air and Space Museum

This 300,000 square foot museum is dedicated to the nation's most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Experience the future of aviation and space travel, walk through two aircraft display hangers and see Looking Glass, Voodoo, the Delta Dagger and more amazing flying machines.

Mahoney State Park

A year-round nature escape offering a total of 700 acres nestled along the picturesque Platte River. It's a great place to hike, bike, and ride horses, go paddle boating, fish, and sled during the winter. The Peter Kiewit Lodge at Mahoney includes a full service restaurant; the Mahoney Grill is open every day, except Christmas. Sunday Brunch is one of the specialties.

Holy Family Shrine

Created for travelers as an oasis for peace and tranquility, this stunning glass chapel sits on a hilltop just off I-80. Two streams cut through the limestone that forms the floor and foundation of the chapel and its unique glass architecture, with its curved wooden arches, make it a perfect place to stop and enjoy the beauty.

Nebraska Crossing Outlet Mall

With more than 50 outlet stores including Kate Spade, Under Armour, Cole Haan and Coach, the bargain hunter in you will not be disappointed. In addition to Lucky Brand, Michael Kors and Nike outlets, you'll also find a fun variety of food options such as Voodoo Taco and Burger Star.

Bryson Airboat Tours

This fun river adventure takes you on 60 mph wind-in-your-hair trip into the heart of the Platte River. The airboats comfortably and safely carry 11 passengers in movie-theater style seating providing great views for all passengers.

Where to Eat & Play

Dining

When Food Loves You Back

Food can be many things – an escape from the everyday, a form of celebration and sometimes a great comfort. Many of Omaha's menus offer dishes that will feel like you're curled up on grandma's sofa. Big Mama's Kitchen has become a TV food favorite, being featured on the Food Network's Diners, Drive-ins and Dives, Sundance Channel's Ludo Bites America and Travel Channel's 101 Tastiest Places to Chow Down. Visitors travel from all around the world to taste her signature dishes like the afro burger, pig ear sandwich, oven-fried chicken and sweet potato pie ice cream. Omaha's Ethnic Sandwich Shop has been serving up cozy comfort Italian style since 1977. Homemade lasagna, bubbly baked mac n' cheese and the Fatty – a French dip with swiss cheese on a toasted garlic French bun – are just a few tasty options. Want to take your comfort food on the road? Stop for a cozy and portable Runza, aka "a meal in a bunza". A local favorite, the Runza is a pocket of dough filled with beef, cabbage, seasonings and sometimes cheese. So popular, out-of-towners order them by the case, freeze them and take them home. Cozy up with Omaha food at VisitOmaha.com/dining.

The Best of Land and Sea

Flame broiled, wood fire-grilled and whiskey doused – all methods Omaha has used to perfect the steak. For years locals and visitors have discussed where to enjoy the most mouthwatering steak in the "Great Omaha Steak Debate" and now is your chance to weigh in. The Drover is known for its whiskey marinated steaks, featuring the best Certified Angus Beef. One of the few restaurants in the country to serve only USDA Prime steaks and chops, Omaha Prime pairs their cuts with some of the world's rarest wines. If you ask Omaha billionaire Warren Buffett where to find the best steak, he'll likely point you to Piccolo Pete's, winner of the Travel Channel's Food Wars, or Gorat's, a true Omaha steak institution.

Steak and seafood...a match made in heaven that fills Omaha's eclectic menu. Shucks Fish House and Oyster Bar serves up the freshest seafood including crab cakes, crispy calamari, chunky gumbo and oysters on the half shell shucked right in front of you. Blue Sushi has developed a reputation among locals because of its energetic atmosphere, Asian-influenced entrees and masterfully crafted sushi plates. Right across the street is Plank, Omaha's new coastally-inspired oyster bar and seafood grill. Omaha has perfected the art of Surf n' Turf – dive into more at VisitOmaha.com/dining.

The Drover

Crescent Moon

Raising Reuben

The journey for a prime Reuben sandwich begins and ends in Omaha. The sandwich's long history starts in the early 1900s when a local grocer at Omaha's Blackstone Hotel was challenged to create something new and tasty for late-night poker players. The result was a hit that is now an Omaha staple. A few steps away from the Reuben's original stomping ground is the Crescent Moon, a current hotspot for the culinary favorite. Stop by and sink your teeth into two pieces of grilled marble rye stuffed with slow cooked corned beef topped with sauerkraut, bubbly Swiss cheese and creamy Thousand Island dressing - aptly named the Blackstone Reuben. The Reuben has been a menu staple at the Dundee Dell since 1934. Choose from corned beef or turkey and taste test their super secret sauce. Just don't be surprised if you see international rock icon and Dell regular, Bono sitting in the next booth. Along with the Crescent Moon and Dundee Dell, Visit Omaha's Facebook fans named Brazen Head Irish Pub, Razzy's Deli and Goldberg's Bar & Grill as the best spots to enjoy the famed sandwich. This Omaha original will have you craving more. Did we mention that butter brickle ice cream was also created in Omaha? Ahh... we love to sweet talk...

Modern Love

A Natural Food High

With the opening of Modern Love, vegans from across the country are planning their foodie excursions to Omaha. Popular vegan cooking personality Isa Chandra Moskowitz leads Modern Love with the focus of providing "swanky vegan comfort food". Enjoy Mac & Shews, a vegan/gluten free spin on a classic, a beet burger topped with smoky cashew cheese or a variety of homemade vegan desserts. Find more naturally delicious Omaha restaurants at VisitOmaha.com/dining.

Satisfying Sweets

In Omaha, dessert takes the cake, the pie, the pastry, and the ice cream. The heavenly desserts at Delicé, cheesecake by the foot at Wheatfield's Eatery & Bakery, German cakes at Gerda's, and the Neapolitan tortes at the Lithuanian Bakery are all mouth-watering layers of European goodness. Ted and Wally's is a sweet Omaha institution churning up fresh homemade ice cream flavors daily, such as Carmel Pecan Pie, Concord Grape, Cosmo Coffee Crunch and more. Take a bigger bite of Omaha's sweet treats at VisitOmaha.com/dining.

Omaha's only authentic German restaurant. A little piece of Germany in Omaha. Gerda herself makes homemade spaetzle, schnitzels and rouladen. Fresh-made soups, red cabbage, sauerkraut and dumplings are a few other treats. Stay for black forest cake for dessert or grab fresh bakery for breakfast on your way out.

Best Steakhouse
OMAHA MAGAZINE'S
Best of Omaha
2015 Winner
4 years in a row

The aroma and sizzle of a succulent Omaha steak are unlike anything, anywhere else in the world. The fork-tenderness and delectable flavors of Omaha's steaks need no additional seasoning but a little salt. The sublime experience is enough for many vegetarians to forego their diet for one meal.

The #1 question hotel concierges are asked: "Where do I go to get a good Omaha steak?" The locals all have their favorites and several are featured here.

Where to Eat & Play

Nightlife

Omaha's nightlife ranges from ultra sophisticated to warm and friendly. So grab a seat and raise your glass because it's going to be a good night.

Sophisticated...

Whether you're a wine connoisseur or a novice, there is a wine glass (or bottle) waiting for you to sip, taste and savor. A wine aficionado's heaven, brix is best described as a total wine experience. The brix Wine Bistro serves 64 wines by the ounce or by the glass from the Enomatic Wine Serving System, an innovative wine dispenser from Italy. Also find favorite international wines, craft beers or premium liquors in the extensive retail store. Visit La Buvette and choose from over 100 bottles of wine in a French café setting. Take a seat on the patio in the heart of the Old Market and people watch like a true Parisian. Lot 2's wine bar serves an extensive array of wine from Spain, Italy, France and South America, chosen by Certified Sommeliers, who just happen to own the place and are known for their culinary creations. Bricks and Mortar, Nosh and Harvest, the wine list could go on and on...

La Buvette

Brickway Brewery & Distillery

...and Friendly

Whether it's the light zest of cold ale, the mild flavor of a frosty lager, or the heavy malt taste of a dark stout, Omaha is gaining national recognition as a top beer city. Crescent Moon is consistently ranked as one of the top beer bars in the country by Draft Magazine; and Beertopia, Omaha's premier beer emporium offers nearly 600 international specialty beers. An Omaha original, Upstream Brewery is known for creating innovative flavors, the award-winning, hand-crafted beers are brewed fresh on-site. Cradled in the heart of Omaha's hip Benson neighborhood, Infusion and Benson Brewery create their own brand of craft brew. Infusion's Vanilla Bean Blonde is a local favorite, and The Karha-T at Benson Brewery is a chai tea inspired mild English Ale that gets rave reviews. Started by two home brewers Farnam House Brewery specializes in artisan farmhouse ales and experimental barrel-aged, Brett-fermented, and American sour ales. Brickway Brewery & Distillery, Omaha's first and only full production brewery is all about honoring the grit and old-school craftsmanship that the city was built on — great beer and stiff whiskey. Pull up a seat and find more Omaha watering holes at VisitOmaha.com/nightlife.

The Slowdown

Hot Spots for Cool Music

Omaha is ranked as one of 'America's Coolest Music Towns' by a top travel website DreamPlanGo. The birthplace of nationally known artists such as Conor Oberst, The Faint and Cursive, Omaha's indie music scene continues to grow. Sokol Underground is the original Omaha indie concert hall, and The Slowdown, one of the best indie-music venues in the nation, lives up to its name, giving music lovers a place to chill and be entertained. The award-winning arena, CenturyLink Center Omaha attracts top touring acts from across the country. The 18,300-seat arena hosts everything from blockbuster performances to intimate shows. For a twist, the audience provides the live music at DJ's Dugout. Stop by for a night of laughing and singing along with the dueling pianos. Omaha's live music scene lights up all week long in bars, clubs and pubs throughout the city including, The Waiting Room, The Hive, Barley St. Tavern and PS Collective. Find more live music options at VisitOmaha.com/livemusic.

DJ's Dugout

The Boiler Room

Crafting Cocktails

It's like watching an artist create a masterpiece you can drink. At The Boiler Room the artists behind the bar use unique tricks to create custom craft cocktails filled with fresh seasonal juices and house-made ingredients. Berry & Rye, serves cocktails inspired by pre-prohibition era drinks with an experimental, contemporary and culinary perspective. Berry & Rye uses a reverse osmosis water system that ensures the purest water possible for its craft ice program, alongside the sodas, syrups and bitters made in-house. Wilson and Washburn is very proud of the fact it's located in an old 'house of ill repute' and you'll notice their cocktails are named after former 'ladies of the evening' — don't worry it's now legal to buy a Josie Washburn, which is made of sapphire, lavender simple and Weizenbier. Grane offers a haven for the outlaw in all of us, a modern speakeasy wrapped in dark wood and dim lighting that's all about whiskey. Grane is first in the world to use a unique dispensing device that allows you to taste small portions of rare and/or expensive top of the line whiskeys.

Where to Eat & Play

Entertaining Neighborhoods

Omaha is peppered with entertaining neighborhoods bursting with live music, friendly neighborhood bars, quirky shops and memorabilia from a rich history. From historic and urban chic to scrumptious and ultra hip, there is something unique to see and do in every corner of the city.

Omaha's Old Market

This historic warehouse district has been transformed into a bustling nightlife, shopping, art and dining destination. Stroll rustic cobblestone streets lined with charming shops and eclectic galleries. Dine in Omaha original restaurants serving chef-driven menus with seasonally-inspired ingredients. End the night in the perfect little pub where people watching is part of the appeal. The Old Market is a stay and play destination for the whole family.

Midtown Crossing

This urban chic neighborhood is home to a collection of restaurants ranging from upscale Mexican food at Cantina Laredo and contemporary cuisine at Crave to fast-casual at Ingredient. Enjoy the farm-to-table freshness of The Grey Plume, one of the greenest restaurants in the country. Stroll across the street to find Grey's house made charcuterie, jams, coffee mustard and more at Provisions by The Grey Plume. Check out brix, a unique wine bar/retail shop with more than 1,200 wines from across the world. A few doors down, the folks at brix bring you Grane, a whiskey tasting room using unique dispensing technology while serving whiskey-inspired small plates and craft cocktails. Catch dinner and a show at the Marcus CineDine Theater, offering a full in-theater dining and cocktail menu. During the summer and fall months, live music fills Midtown and offers a relaxing way to spend a Thursday evening. Even four-legged family members can find souvenirs and customized treats at Three Dog Bakery.

North Downtown Omaha (NoDo)

Urban hip fills each corner of the North Downtown (NoDo) Entertainment District. The heart of NoDo is the mixed-use Saddlecreek Development with an array of activities. See top indie rock bands at The Slowdown, one of the nation's hottest venues. Catch a first-run independent film or documentary at the intimate cinema art house, Film Streams at Ruth Sokolof Theater. Shop the latest trends at Urban Outfitters. Or relax with friends at Goodnights Pizza, Blue Line Coffee or atop Blatt Beer & Table overlooking NoDo. Live sporting events create a buzzy, electric atmosphere at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home of the NCAA Men's College World Series, and national performers light up the stage in the award-winning CenturyLink Center Omaha arena. The party continues at the many surrounding bars and lounges.

Aksarben Village

A mixed-use development combining urban living with entertainment and dining, Aksarben Village is home to several restaurants including Ponzu Sushi & Grill, Dudley's Pizza and Mai Thai Restaurant. Attracting young college adults, Aksarben's Stinson Park hosts an array of outdoor events including the Maha Music Festival, Crush Festival, Omaha Beer Fest and Artsarben, a festival showcasing art by 80 artists from across the country.

Stinson Park

Dundee

Centrally located, the historic streets of Dundee's are lined with cozy restaurants, one-of-a-kind shops and friendly bars frequented by the neighborhood's residents. Stop for dinner at one of the many trendy restaurants. Pitch Pizzeria brings new meaning to the phrase pitch perfect. Enjoy coal-fire pizza, creamy flame-broiled pastas and their famous roasted brussels sprouts – yes, you will want to eat your vegetables! Dario's Brasserie, Mark's Bistro and The French Bulldog add European flair to this hip area. While strolling you might run into more than just the locals. Paul McCartney and Omaha billionaire Warren Buffett enjoyed dinner at the Italian hot spot Avoli and headed over to eCreamery for dessert. McCartney and Buffett aren't the only two celebrity fans of eCreamery, the ice cream shop has been featured on ABC's The Shark Tank, The View, Today Show, and Rachael Ray.

Dundee

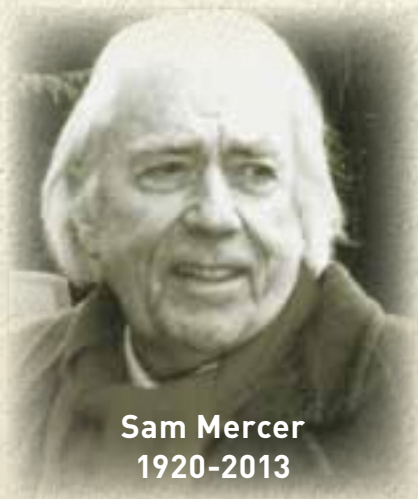

South Omaha

Explore the sights, flavors and aroma in the South Omaha district. With historic ties to cultures from across the globe, South Omaha continues to celebrate its Polish, Czech, German and Mexican heritage through food and art. Enjoy carne asada tacos at Taqueria Tijuana, a customary Czech meal at the Bohemian Café, or grab a Yo-Yo (a traditional Latino pastry) at the International Bakery. Finding just one souvenir can be a challenge with dozens of one-of-a-kind neighborhood shops including the World of Mexican Pottery. Throughout the year, South Omaha shines with an array of festivals. The Czech-Slovak Festival, Cinco de Mayo and the Vinton Street Creativity Festival help round out a diverse calendar. Be sure to snag a photo of the iconic Tree of Life, a public art piece that symbolizes the varied cultures of the area. Find your complete passport to South Omaha at VisitOmaha.com.

South 24th Street

Sam Mercer
1920-2013

At the end of the 19th century, Omaha was in its prime as a great railroad center, connecting the settled East with the wide-open West. The Old Market area was at the height of its splendor—bustling with produce dealers, buyers and transporters.

The bustle continued until the 1950s when Omaha's westward expansion and radical changes in grocery marketing abruptly brought the activity to a halt. That's when Sam Mercer, threatened with building condemnation notices, proposed to rescue his family's red brick warehouses by renovating them for new uses. Most people thought him imprudent. Today, they call him a visionary.

Mercer's role has been a delicate balance of making things happen and allowing things to evolve. Nonetheless, he is the first to admit that there never was a master plan for developing the Old Market. "We knew these warehouses had possibilities, and to tear them down to construct contemporary buildings would have been like painting over the Mona Lisa." Change happens all the time, but it has to be the right kind of change. Preservation and maintenance of the architectural integrity of the buildings remains a guiding principle.

THE OLD MARKET

Whether you're a first-time tourist, a downtown worker or an Omaha resident, there is always something to see and do in the Old Market.

The Old Market—with its brick streets, unique shops and restaurants, constantly changing art, and carriage rides—gives you the opportunity to experience the history and heart of Omaha. It is located in the oldest part of town so a lot of the original flavor of the old buildings has been preserved, making it a pleasure to see as well as walk around.

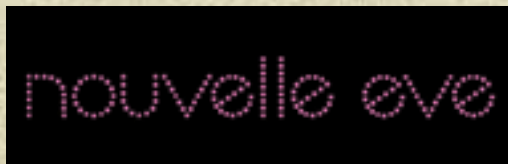

DINING

The Old Market features some of the city's best restaurants. No matter what you are interested in, there is a restaurant that will satisfy the palate, all unique, some very upscale. How about eating outside when the weather is beautiful? There are more than a dozen locations to pick from. Want something more casual? Less expensive? Family oriented? Ethnic? You never need to leave the Old Market to find great food!

BARS & PUBS

The Old Market has great bars and pubs that offer many different types of atmospheres—everything from sports bars to bars with entertainment. There are over 20 different locations within the Old Market that offer something for everyone.

Travel-Worthy Shopping

Little pieces of shopping heaven are sprinkled throughout the city. Omaha's historic Old Market Entertainment District features cobblestone streets lined with unique boutiques, antique emporiums and art galleries, along with pubs, great restaurants and sweet shops (just in case you need to re-energize for more shopping). Nouvelle Eve is an Old Market favorite with runway ready fashion and jewelry. Other Old Market boutiques include Souq Ltd., Overland Sheepskin Co. and countless others. Check out City Limits, filled wall-to-wall with funky gifts, unique greeting cards and even a corner dedicated to bacon-inspired products (think car fresheners, action figures and candy). Find one-of-a-kind home décor at Old Market Niche, and shop for the holidays year-round at Tannenbaum Christmas Shop. The Shops of Legacy is another boutique shopping hot spot dedicated to non-chain establishments. Find the latest fashion trends at Mesh, Katina's Couture, The Garment District, Sublime Couture, Togs, beYourself and Skyz Boutique. Other great shopping spots include Countryside Village and Rockbrook Village—an extra suitcase might be in order. Flip through these pages and find more Omaha exclusive boutiques or browse VisitOmaha.com/shopping.

Make-and-Take Masterpieces

Omaha's creative spirit shines in the distinctive artwork found in local galleries around the city. Images of Nature Gallery in the Old Market is filled with exquisite limited edition photographs that capture nature in a whole new way. More than a dozen artists sell their work at the Old Market Artists Gallery, which holds "First Friday" receptions each month from 6 to 9pm, and "Gallery Walks" on the 2nd Wednesday of the month (May-December) from 5 to 8pm.

The Omaha Creative Institute invites visitors to "Come Create It" workshops ranging from African drumming and glassblowing to ceramics. Sip on a glass of your favorite vino and paint a work of art at Village Canvas & Cabernet, The Corky Canvas, Uncorked or Pinot's Palette. Other DIY art spots include The Pottery Place, The ArtRoom and It's Your Pottery. Check out more of Omaha's artsy side in this section of the guide or by going to VisitOmaha.com/shopping.

Hot Shops Art Center

Village Pointe Shopping Center

Borsheims at Regency Court

Shop, Eat, Repeat

The flower-lined streets of Village Pointe Shopping Center are reminiscent of the nostalgic "Main Street" while offering upscale shopping and national favorites. Enjoy more than 60 specialty shops such as Ann Taylor, J Crew, Apple, Banana Republic, Sephora, DSW and Coach, just to name a few. After a whirl on the Scheels Ferris Wheel, catch a comedy show or a free outdoor concert on Saturday nights during the summer. Omaha's indoor shopping offers many of your favorite national brand names. Westroads, Nebraska's largest shopping mall, offers more than 135 specialty stores, including popular department store Von Maur, Younkers, JCPenney and Dick's Sporting Goods. Spend the day shopping and wind down with a movie at the AMC Westroads Theater or grab a meal at The Cheesecake Factory, P.F. Chang's or Granite City Brewery. Not too far away, royalty-worthy shopping waits at Regency Court. The king of the court is Borsheims, the nation's largest independent jewelry store owned by billionaire investor Warren Buffett. Head west to Oak View Mall to find two levels of shopping with name brand retailers such as Gap, MAC, Victoria's Secret, Eddie Bauer and Dillard's.
