SHOPPING 4 DAY/5 NIGHT ITINERARY

DISCOVER THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS BEACH

Day One: Looking for beach and resort wear? Then a stop to Ocean Walk Shoppes is a must. This oceanfront, multi-level, outdoor shopping plaza is home to Maui Nix, Point Break, Caribongo's and Sunglass Hut. Be sure to visit our charming downtown district which offers unique shopping, experience coastal charm and downtown dazzle at the Riverfront Shops of Daytona Beach. Located along the scenic Halifax River, this shopping, dining, and entertainment district features an impressive array of restaurants, shops and attractions on and just off the district's main thoroughfare – Beach Street.

Day Two: Daytona Flea & Farmers Market was voted one of the top five markets by USA Weekend, you will be amazed by this market's many offerings, from fresh produce and seafood to art, clothing, electronics, jewelry and much, much more. Be sure to visit The Pavilion at Port Orange major retailers housed in this outdoor shopping village include Belk, Marshalls/HomeGoods Megastore and ULTA. The Pavilion also features a variety of specialty stores and boutiques.

Day Three: More shopping? The Trails Shopping Center located in Ormond Beach, major retailers such as Ann Taylor Loft, Talbot's, Jos.A. Bank, Coldwater Creek, Patchington, Chicos's and White House Black Market call this shopping center home.

Day Four: And there is more.....Volusia Mall, you'll find more than 125 retail stores here, including Macy's, JCPenney, Dillards, Abercrombie & Fitch, Charlotte Russe, Aeropostale and American Eagle Outfitters. Even more shopping opportunities abound along Daytona Beach's main thoroughfare, International Speedway Blvd., including Burlington Coat Factory, Stein Mart, T.J. Maxx and Marshalls. Also in Daytona Beach, Seabreeze Blvd. is home to Sussman's Designer Fashions, the city's oldest upscale boutique. And, of course, we can't forget the many gift and souvenir shops that line Atlantic Ave. (S.R. A1A from Ormond Beach to Daytona Beach Shores!)
