Interior Terminal D, DART Light Rail System | L > R

Arriving & Departing

It's easy to get to Irving. We are centrally located between Dallas and Fort Worth in North Texas, and in the center of the U.S. By air, Irving is less than four hours from any major metropolitan area in the continental U.S.

By Air

If you're arriving by air, DFW International Airport (972-973-8888, dfwairport.com) is probably on your itinerary. DFW is one of the world's busiest airports and serves all national airlines. Ground transportation is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year via SuperShuttle (817-329-2000, supershuttle.com). If you rent a car, exit the airport via the south entrance (Airport Frwy/SH-183), or north via SH-114. Rail access to and from DFW Airport is also available from DART's South and West Irving Stations to the Centreport Station, where a complimentary bus system provides access to each terminal.

The Metroplex's other major airport is Dallas Love Field (214-670-6073, dallas-lovefield.com), located at Cedar Springs Rd and Mockingbird Ln in Dallas. Love Field handles more than 100 intrastate and regional flights daily. Shuttle service is available through SuperShuttle.

By Bus or Rail

Greyhound Bus Lines (214-849-8966, greyhound.com) serves Irving through its terminal at 969 E Irving Blvd. Dallas Area Rapid Transit (214-749-DART, dart.org) offers convenient service within the Metroplex including commuter rail service on the Trinity Railway Express between Irving's South Irving Station (Rock Island Rd and O'Connor Rd), West Irving Station (Esters Rd and Conflans Dr), downtown Dallas, DFW Airport and downtown Fort Worth. By Car

You can get to Irving from any direction, including I-35E and US-75 (north-south), I-30 and I-20 (east-west), and I-45 (from Houston). The city itself is bordered by four highways: I-635 to the north, Loop 12 (also known as Northwest Highway) to the east, I-30 to the south, and SH-360 to the west. The major arteries within the city limits are O'Connor Road and MacArthur Boulevard (north-south), Airport Freeway (SH-183) and Irving Boulevard (east-west). Cowboys, equestrians and regular folks alike will enjoy the Las Colinas Equestrian Center & Polo Fields (972-869-0600, 600 E Royal Ln, lascolinasequestrian.com). The facility is home to the Las Colinas School of Horsemanship, the first Certified Riding Center in the Dallas/Fort Worth area.

Campión Trails

Campión Trails (972-721-2501, cityofirving.org/parks-and-recreation) is an unexpected delight in the midst of a bustling urban development. Located along the shores of the Trinity River's Elm and West Forks, Irving's world-class greenbelt development includes miles of native forest and pristine river abundant with wildlife and flora. More than 30 miles of paved, wheelchair-accessible primary and secondary trails are planned for the greenbelt. An additional 10 miles will be designed as unpaved nature, off-road bicycling and equestrian trails. Ten parks and other key points offer easy access for residents and visitors on foot, wheels or horseback to canoe landings and sailboat launches, parks with picnic areas, activity and event plazas, nature centers and historic interpretive facilities, as well as a 156-acre sports complex.

Within Campión's bounds lie several of Texas' most historic trails and crossings. These include the original Keenan's Crossing Bridge along the Bird's Fort Trail, which Sam Houston traveled en route to signing The Treaty of Peace and Friendship in 1843, leading to the end of hostilities with the Indians; and California Crossing, a junction along the California

Trail favored by '49ers as they journeyed west seeking fortunes of gold. The northern section, Spring Trail Park, includes 3.5 miles of primary trail and 2.5 miles of equestrian trail at the intersection of Riverside Dr and Spur 348. The southern section's Mountain Creek Preserve, at Nursery and Hunter Ferrell roads, includes 1.5 miles of concrete trails, equestrian riding area and a canoe launch.

Also visit West Village (McKinney Ave at Lemmon Ave) in Uptown Dallas for urban chic stores in a retro setting. If "shop 'til you drop" is your style, try the Galleria (972-702-7100), NorthPark Center (214-361-6345) or The Shops at Park Lane (214-369-0860). While in Fort Worth, stop by Sundance Square (817-255-5700) and the Stockyards Station (817-625-9715). Sporting Fun

Irving is serious when it comes to sports and it is known for the proliferation of sports it enjoys. Located in the center of Dallas/Fort Worth, its prime location provides easy access to all of the major sports venues in the area.

Professional Sporting Events

If you're in town during football season, nothing beats the excitement of the five-time world champion NFL Dallas Cowboys playing at home in Cowboys Stadium (817-404-0091). If you like your sports on the rocks, take in an NHL Dallas Stars hockey game (214-GO-STARS) at American Airlines Center. To see baseball at its best, visit Rangers Ballpark in Arlington for a Texas Rangers game (817-273-5100). Catch the NBA's Dallas Mavericks at the American Airlines Center (214-747-MAVS).

Or take in professional outdoor soccer action with FC Dallas at Pizza Hut Park in Frisco (214-705-6700). Texas Motor Speedway (817-215-8500) offers Sprint Cup NASCAR and also Indy-style racing, while Lone Star Park at Grand Prairie (972-263-RACE) features horsepower of a different sort with Class 1 horse racing. And check out Mesquite ProRodeo (972-285-8777) for a glimpse of Texas' wilder side.

Golf Courses

Irving is a golfer's dream, with five 18-hole courses within the city limits, and dozens more within a 20-minute drive.

Among Irving's finest courses are the world-class TPC Four Seasons Resort and Club (972-717-0700, 4150 N MacArthur Blvd) and the adjacent Cottonwood Valley Course; the TPC hosts the PGA TOUR's HP Byron Nelson Championship each spring. Golf enthusiasts will also enjoy nearby public courses, including L.B. Houston Municipal Golf Course (214-670-6322, 11223 Luna Rd), Twin Wells Golf Course (972-438-4340, 2000 E Shady Grove Rd), and River Chase Golf Course (972-462-8281, 700 River Chase Dr).

Nightlife Fun

While mention of the great state of Texas may call to mind images of cowboys and rodeos, Irving and the DFW Metroplex is actually a place where the nightlife scene is just about as hip as anywhere in the country – and you don't need to know how to wrangle a bull to enjoy it!

If shooting the breeze and a game of billiards is your style, enjoy an easy-going evening at the Flatland Grille in the Doubletree – DFW North (972-929-8181, 4441 Hwy 114 at Esters). Big game enthusiasts will appreciate Pitchers Tavern at the Dallas/Fort Worth Airport Marriott (972-929-8800, 8440 Freepoint Pkwy), with large-screen TVs throughout, and a “hungry hour” buffet that's sure to please, The AllStar Sports Lounge located in the Sheraton Grand Hotel (972-929-8400, 4440 W Carpenter Frwy), or 19 Bar at the Four Seasons

Resort and Club (972-717-0700, 4150 N MacArthur Blvd). M Bar at the Omni Mandalay (972-556-0800, 221 E Las Colinas Blvd) is a themed sports bar with plasma TVs featuring sports programming and billiards.

Set in a casual country club atmosphere is the Spirit Grille (972-717-7575, 4030 N MacArthur Blvd), open 'til 2 am every day. Cool River Cafe (972-871-8881, 1045 Hidden Ridge), at 23,000 square feet with seating for 500, is living proof that people in Texas do things bigger! The massive dining rooms are done in a ranch-meets-lodge motif; there's also a cozy cigar-and-cognac room, a separate billiards area and large bar. The Ranch at Las Colinas (972-506-7262, 857 W John Carpenter Frwy) is one of the few places on earth where a hard-working ranch hand and a high-powered businessman could dine together and both feel comfortable. Enjoy live music on The Porch most Tuesdays through Saturdays.

The giant video walls at Champps Americana (972-373-0333, 855 W Carpenter Frwy) and its eight satellite systems make it a favorite of sports fans. Weekly promotions, including late-night entertainment, keep Champps popular all evening.

For authentic Country and Western music and dance, don't miss the world-famous Billy Bob's Texas, located in Fort Worth's Stockyards District (817-624-7117), or Sundance Square (817-255-5700) in downtown Fort Worth. Also, be sure to visit Gilley's (888-GILLEYS, 1135 S Lamar) in Dallas, which features a 10,000-square-foot dance floor and El Toro, the celebrated mechanical bull from the movie Urban Cowboy.
