

SHE'S A SOUTHERN BELLE

TOUR

Take a ride on Milly, our famous Trolley Tour, which visits the castle-like Old State Capital. This National Historic Landmark is definitely a must-see of Milledgeville, along with Lockerly Arboretum.

EXPLORE

Grab a Walking Tour of Milledgeville for a guide on the most historic homes and buildings that Milly has to offer. From the Old Governor's Mansion to the Sallie-Ellie Davis house, this illustrated guide will transport you to Antebellum times.

ANTIQUE

Explore some of Milledgeville's many antique stores, such as Jean's Antiques and Auntie Bellum Antiques to find some Milledgeville memorabilia. For Civil War artifacts, and even some locally made wine, stop by the Red Door.

STAY

Book the Judge's Room at the Antebellum Inn, which was built in 1890. It is the most popular suite in this Historic Inn, complete with a private entrance to a classic southern front porch, perfect to wind down and enjoy a lazy evening.
